Indian community meeting with Federal Minister of State

A meeting of the Indian community members from the four states under the jurisdiction of the Consulate was organized on September 16, 2014 with Ms. Aydan Oezoguz, Minister of State in the Federal Chancellery and Federal Government Commissioner for Immigration, Refugees and Integration. Ms. Oezoguz is a member of Bundestag representing Wandsbek constituency in Hamburg. During the meeting, community members spoke about their activities and discussed certain issues facing the community with the Minister, besides about ways to strengthen bilateral relations. The Minister has promised to look into the issues raised by the community and has expressed desire for more such interactions. About 15 Indians from various walks of life participated in the meeting.
