

WORLD UNION OF WHOLESALE MARKET (WUWM) CONFERENCE
FROM 10TH TO 12TH OCTOBER 2018 AT GURUGRAM, HARYANA

Government of Haryana, India is going to organise World Union of Wholesale Market (WUWM) Conference from 10th to 12th October 2018 at Gurugram, Haryana. The WUWM is an International Organization of 65 countries having members of around 200 Wholesale Markets across the World.

The WUWM conference is relevant to all wholesale/retail market operators and traders, food hygiene / security experts, food industry representatives, producers, distributors, academics and national / regional decision-makers. The conference provides delegates with valuable networking opportunities and an international forum to debate the latest issues and trends facing not only wholesale and retail markets, but the market sector and food distribution industries worldwide.

More than 200 participants from 41 countries including at least 100 WUWM members (mostly foreign delegates) are expected to participate in this International event. The Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana, H.E. Governor Haryana and various Union Ministers and State Ministers shall be part of this Mega Event.
